Mr. Walker's Speech
ON THE KANSAS BILL.

In which he endorsed the Compromise Measures, Deprecated the agitation of the Slavery question, and deplored the Abolition of Slavery in the District of Columbia, the abolition of the Internal Slave trade, and the prohibition of Slavery in all the Territories which might follow the passage of the Kansas Bill.

In the debates on the Kansas-Nebraska bill on the 2d of March, 1854, (See Vol. 29, page 291, Appendix to Cong. Globe,) Mr. WALKER said:

Before I take my seat, allow me to say generally, in regard to this measure, that I think it is most unfortunate that it has ever been introduced. I express this as my opinion. I do not intend that it shall be regarded as a lecture to anybody. I do not wish to be charged with seeking to lecture anybody by that expression; but my opinion is, that it is unfortunate, and most peculiarly unfortunate for the Democratic party. The legislation on this subject in 1850 had become almost entirely satisfactory to the whole country. The people had setttled down under it, and had become contented. The two great parties in the country, since the passage of these measures, had nominated their candidates for the Presidency. Each of them held a convention in Baltimore, at which they solemnly endorsed the legislation of 1850. So well were the Democratic party satisfied with the settlement then made, that they triumphed in the contest almost unanimously. But four States—two of the North and two of the South—were found to dissent. Nor have we any evidence—in fact, we have testimony to the contrary—that these States dissented from that choice, then made by the people, on the ground that they had any objection to the legislation of 1850. The country seemed to be in a state of quiet when we met at this session of Congress, after the happening of these events.

But, now, what will this measure produce? Do you suppose that those who sat down, saying, "it is useless to agitate," will be quiet?—The two great parties in the country have taken it into their hands and settled it for themselves; but those who have heretofore become convinced that the great mass of the American people were determined to have no further agitation, will have no control resting on them now, or will have none after the passage of the bill. There will certainly be nothing to control them, for they will have the evidence in their favor that they are permitted to agitate. They will have the action of both parties to justify them in it, unsolicited by them in every sense of the word. They can point to this provision of the bill on the subject of slavery, and say to its friends, "You first interfered with the compromise of 1850; you first broke over its bounds; you first, in organizing these Territories, did what some of the friends of the bill proclaimed was an establishment of slavery; and we, consequently, are no longer restrained. We feel now that our hands are untied. We feel that we can appeal to Northern sentiment to go on the other tack, and do what we require." They will appeal to the Northern sentiment to step forward, and not only reënact the Missouri compromise on Territory North of 36° 30', but to enact an express prohibition of slavery in the territories South of it; to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia; to abolish the internal slave trade. They will feel themselves perfectly at liberty to do this. The license, and the example, and the precedent having been set by the two great parties of the country, they will feel themselves at liberty to agitate to the utmost extremity of their power; and it may be, that those who do not yield to it will have to step aside and give place to those who will do what is demanded. Who will have most cause to complain then? Will it be the North? No. I will say to Southern gentlemen, it will be a matter to be deplored by all your friends in the North, and those who have stood by you in the late Presidential contest, and in so many that have gone before. It certainly cannot be gratifying to you to see your friends go down, one by one, until you have no helping hand. It may be that the time may come when you will regret this measure more than any one now living can. I do not know that it will be, but it may be so.

But if this bill passes, I, for one, expect to see no quiet in Congress. I do not believe there will be quiet. I believe agitation will go on, and I believe that the example set by some of the States, my own among the rest, of instructing their Senator, will be followed up until there will be a prohibition of slavery wherever it can be enacted. I shall not promote this agitation, but do all I can to prevent it; and when it will come, as come I fear it must, no one will deplore it than I.

What have we here from this Senatorial Representative of the Free State of Wisconsin? An approval of the Slave Compromise measures of 1850, including the infamous and abhorred Fugitive Slave Act, a declaration that they were acceptable to the country, and that he would not have them disturbed, and that if the South now opened the discussion of the Slavery Question, the North might insist on abolishing the disgrace of Slavery at the Capitol, the piracy of the internal slave trade, and establish Freedom in all our Territories, and though he should deplore such events, yet he would be powerless to help his Southern brethren, the slaveholders, and begged of them not to press a measure which would annihilate their allies—himself and co-Democrats of the North!—And he declares that he shall not PROMOTE this agitation, but shall do all he can to PREVENT it, and when they should take place, no one would deplore them more than he!

And when the slaveholders pressed him, to know whether he had voted for the Compromise measures, which he professed to accept with so much satisfaction, his friend, Senator Dodge, of Iowa, explained for him, that he did not, because he voted under instructions. And being still further taken to task by the slave drivers, Mr. Walker made still lower obeisance to the Slave Power.

Mr. Walker said:

It is true that I voted for but one of the compromise measures of 1850; but the circumstances under which I so voted have been explained to the Senate. I hope, however, that neither he nor any individual Senator entertains any opinion that I was less gratified with the peace produced by the passage of those measures than I would have been if I had voted for them all That is exactly the point which I was endeavoring to enforce—that I was gratified at the peace which they had brought about; and no one in his heart felt a greater desire than I did that they should be sustained and carried out, and that the country should ACT UP TO THEM IN GOOD FAITH.

Here we find Senator Walker apologizing for having voted for but one of the compromise measures, expressing his gratification at the result of those compromises—as much so, as if he had voted for all of them—and his great desire to see them carried out. Nay, he boasts that "no one"—not even the slave catchers—"felt a greater desire than I (he) did, that they"—all of them, the Fugitive Slave Act, which our Supreme Court has decided an unconstitutional outrage upon the liberties of the people, and which the people of this State have repudiated by an overwhelming vote—"should be sustained and carried out, and that the country should act up to them in good faith!" And this Fugitive Slave Act defender, so anxious to sustain and carry it out, and thereby trample on Liberty and the Constitution, seeks an election to the Senate of this State—by the aid of Republican votes—where he may have a voice in sending a man of his stamp to the U. S. Senate, to play the piteous part he has played on the Slavery question, in defiance of the sentiments of the people, in violation of his own pledges, and of the positive instructions of the Legislature, which clothed him with authority as the Representative of the State.

We add, that our Associate, Mr. Vaughan, who was on the ground during the whole struggle on the Kansas-Nebraska bill, assures us, that Mr. Walker's position was dubious to the very last, that the Anti-Slavery men in Congress were in doubt till the final vote whether he would vote for or against the bill, that on preliminary questions and amendments which determined the fate of the bill, he frequently voted with the Slaveholders, and that he offered no stern resistance to the bill, except to finally vote against it, and that his influence was not exerted against it as became the representative of a Free State! Such is the man Republicans are asked to vote for, in preference to their own true and faithful candidate, Nelson Z. Strong. Will they do it? Heaven forbid!

BARSTOW MEETING AT OZAUKEE.—The last Ozaukee Advertiser publishes, with flaming headings, the proceedings of the Barstow exhibition, in that village on Friday last. The usual speeches were made by Arthur McArthur, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, and Geo. B. Smith, Attorney General, while the Governor showed himself occasionally to the crowd.

After the Barstowites were through, Mr. Casey, editor of the Waukesha Democrat, was called to the stand, and addressed the meeting in opposition to Barstow.

Jos. Kay, of Waukesha County, followed Mr. Casey against the reëlection of Gov. Barstow, and quite a number of Democrats of Ozaukee declared they could not, consistently, vote for Barstow, as they believed he had cheated the State most wofully. Such is the feeling all over the State.

JOHN VAN BUREN.—John Van Buren is making himself quite active in the present political campaign in New York. On Tuesday evening, he addressed a large meeting at the Capitol defending the Administration and President, from the attacts of the Washington Union. He attributed the course of that paper to its hostility to Franklin Pierce, and an intrigue to supplant him. Prince John has turned a great many political somersets, to get on the popular side, but has almost uniformly been unsuccessfull.—In 1848 he stumped New York in favor of Free Soil, and now we find him defending the monstrous iniquities of the present Pro-Slavery Administration

A Ride and a Speech, with sundry incidents connected therewith.

Being posted for a speech, last evening, at Prospect Hill, we mounted "our steed" after the editorial labors of the day, and started on "our winding way." The day was anything but inspiring, and "the moist earth below" and "damp air around," did any thing but tend to increase our spirits, or enliven our nature.—However, on we splashed, through mud and mire, with "inexpressibles" in boots, and boots "inexpressibly" be-spotted, till the thought suddenly flashed upon us, that, perhaps, we might be on the wrong road, and that it would be well for us to inquire. No sooner thought than done, and, riding up to a two-horse wagon we addressed the driver.

"Is this the road to Prospect Hill?"

"Vot," said he of the reins.

"Is this the road to Prospect Hill?"

"Yah, me quesh so. Vot Hill you want? Me don't know him."

And so we thought, and on we spurred, without having been particularly enlightened. Our anxiety to know, definitely, whether we were traveling right or not, now rapidly increased as we progressed, when lo! a toll gate rose in the distance. There have been times, in our recollection, when "toll-gates" created anything but pleasing emotions, owing to a monetary vacuum in our capacious pockets. But this was not such a time, and never did olden Knight hail the Castle where his "ladie" dwelt, with more delight, than we, that antiquated toll gate. A few minutes passed, and we reined up our horse, and inquired of the "venerable dame," as we put "a quarter" upon her open palm, whether or no we were on the road to Prospect Hill. She answered not, but gazed intently at the ground—as if silently meditating upon our query—when, suddenly, raising her head, she addressed us (who sat leaning over our saddle, awaiting the "harmonious" words that were about to drop from her "organs of speech") with

"See here, Mister, this ere quarter's lead.—You can't come any such game over me."

Had Olympian Jove hurled a thunderbolt of the "first magnitude" upon our devoted head, we could not have been more surprised. We were struck dumb. Visions of counterfeiters and prison bars rose before us. Mechanically we took back the "unfortunate lead," and replacing it by something "genuine," which passed, successfuly, the sharp scrutiny of the Toll Gate dame, we rode rapidly off, catching but one glance of the old lady's eyes peering through a pair of brass specks which seemed to say, "That young man I warrant is one of them ere counterfeiters, and I'll be blest if he a'int riding a stolen horse"

To no purpose did we try to "give Fancy wings"—a sudden jolt would forcibly remind us that we were on nothing but a "horse"—or if we would endeavor to imagine ourselves in some "Fairy realm," a splattering "shower of mud" would instantly destroy the poetry of our imaginings. On we went, however, our horse and self becoming more and more be-grimmed till we resembled that famous Knight of old, and his warlike Rosinante. As the "shades of evening" were wrapping hill and dale, we were still working through "muddy lakelets," and "bottomless pits." And all men, of whom we made inquiries in regard to our point of destination, would invariably answer "Yah" or "Nix-for-stay," until in perfect despair, we gave up questioning and resolved to trust to our "lucky star" for a safe arrival at long-sought Prospect Hill.

Nor were we disappointed, in thus, trusting, for just as the last glimmering light was struggling with over-shadowing darkness, we found ourselves safely lodged with our friend Church at Prospect Hill, and over a nice supper, kindly prepared for us, entirely forgot our past trials and troubles, though, we must own, that the awful state of our hitherto mentioned "inexpressibles" would occasionally recall slight unpleasant remembrances, and, some how or other, a vision of that old "toll gate" lady, would haunt our memory.

Our supper dispatched, we started for the School House, where we purposed speaking.—On arriving, found quite a large number assembled, though the weather was, decidedly, unpropitious. We addressed the meeting in "our usual style of eloquence" (a very questionable "style") and were warmly received. We found the people thoroughly aroused, and determined on electing the Republican ticket, and we also were glad to see that they were equally determined on the election of Streng—the republican nominee for the Senate from the 10th District. The apostate Walker is everywhere and universally repudiated, and will not receive any support from the Republicans. Nor is he entitled to any. A man who will betray a sacred trust confided to him, or concert with slave holders and slave-drivers, as Walker has, is not the man to ask for or receive the suffrages of a Free People. At the close of our speech a vote was taken on Bashford and Strong which was almost unanimous in their favor.

We soon returned and sank into the soft embrace of a voluptuous "feather bed," and weary and exhausted, after our hard day's labor, resigned ourselves to the care and protection of much loved Morpheus, who threw about us his refreshing veil, till peevish Aurora, jealous of his attention, must needs drive away his soothing charms, and awaken us to another day of action. Before breakfast we stepped out upon the Hill and were delighted with the beautiful landscape. The gorgeous hues of Autumn besprinkled the forest, and clothed each tree in many a tinted robe, while the hills around, and Lake Mukwonago in the distance, completed the beauty of the great panorama which lay unrolled before us, bathed in the soft morning light, that came from the glowing east skipping over the frosted fields, making them glisten and sparkle like diamond-beds.

It was a real Indian Summer morning, and the blue haze, peculiar to this season, enveloping the face of Nature, softened and beautified its harsher aspects, if aught there were. The birds had chiefly left for a southern home, yet an occasion chirp from some neighboring tree would remind us of the presence of a feathery straggler, who longed to leave a spot so beautiful, whilst the lusty crowing of many a red-combed chanticleer seemed to us to foretell the decided success of the Republican ticket.

After breakfast we once again mounted our horse, (who seemed to give us a 'knowing wink') and bidding adieu to our host and hostess, by whom we had been so kingly entertained, cantered away from Prospect Hill, a remembrance of our visit to which will always be a pleasant memory, and we, may-hap, sometime repeat it, though if we do, we'll be certain to take the "right road" and carry nothing but "good quarters."

Assembly Convention.

The convention met pursuant to the call, and organized by the election of Thomas Sugden, Chair., and W. H. Godfrey, Sec. On motion of W. H. Godfrey, Ward Atwater, Thomas Chandler and Nelson Shults, were appointed committee on credentials.

The committee reported the following Delegates in attendence:

Genesee.—Thomas Sugden, T. H. Evans, and Israel H. Castle.

Eagle.—Ward Atwater, Wm. L. Henry Hiram Tuttle.

Ottawa.—Thomas Chandler, Samuel Reed, Nelson Shults.

Mukwonago.—W. H. Godfrey, Thomas Bremmer, Orlin Wright.

The convention being fully organized, W. H. Godfrey presented the following resolutions which were adopted:

Whereas, Reports are in circulation calculated to injure the purity of the Republican Party, to wit:—That the two wings of the Republican Party, are bargaining with the two divisions of the Democratic, and whereas, we believe such bargaining and selling will ultimately destroy the Republican Party, therefore

Resolved, That we deny and repudiate any bogus connection with either section of the Democratic Party.

Resolved, That we adopt the platform adopted at Madison, July 13th, 1854.

Resolved, That we will support the State Senatorial and Assembly Dist. Nominations.

The convention then proceeded to ballot for a candidate to represent them in the Assembly whereupon John Orland Harrison, having received a majority of all the votes cast, was declared unanimously nominated.

The convention then adjourned sine die.

J. O. Harrison is a capable and reliable Republican, and one whom the Republicans may be proud to honor. We have no doubt of his election. V. U. S.

NOMINATIONS.—Chas. Beger, is the democratic candidate for the Assembly in the first district of Ozaukee County.

In that County, I. C. Loomis, Esq., Herman J. Schulties and Daniel M. Miller, are independent candidates for the Assembly.

☞ D. Chapin is the Republican candidate for the Assembly in the Bloomfield district of Walworth Co.

☞ The Republicans of the Racine city district have nominated Elisha Raymond as their candidate for the Assembly. Mr Raymond, was a democrat up to the inauguration of the present pro-slavery Administration.

☞ Gen. Ellis of the Stevens Point Pinery has recently had another spasm over the course pursued by the New York Tribune, and the corrupting influence it is exerting upon mankind. It says:

The New York Tribune is a great moral and political Leprosy, spread all over the country, enveloping it in civil disease and death. Its mission is the dissolution of this Union—the pulling down of the Federal Government, and consigning the country to anarchy and bloodshed!

About once in three months the Pinery goes into just such a "conniption" about the Tribune as the above. It evidently, ultimately, expects to extinguish the Tribune.

LA CROSSE NATIONAL DEMOCRAT.—This paper has just closed its first volume. It gives a rather dolorous account of the support it has received during its brief existence, and says, "nearly all the best business houses in La Crosse are Republican." Of course they are, and the same is true in five-sixths of the villages and cities throughout Wisconsin.

The Democrat, however, thinks it has not had a fair trial yet, and looks to the coming year for better things.

One Falsehood Exposed.

The Madison Argus and other Hunker presses having copied a statement from the Mineral Point Democrat, that J. Allen Barber, Republican candidate for Senator from Grant County, "publicly declared in the streets of Shullsburg, that he believed the charges made against Gov. Barstow were got up for political effect only, and stated that he should not make use of any such nonsense in electioneering for himself," Mr. Barber writes to the Grant County Herald denying the statement in toto, and says:

"I believe on the contrary, that most of the charges of mal administration are true:

That Gov. Barstow's administration has been signalized by a profligate squandering of the people's money:

That the State Taxes were needlessly increased during the first year of his administration more than one hundred thousand dollars:

That the sum of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars, the State Taxes to be paid by the people this year, is at least double what ought to be levied under an economical administration of the State:

That Gov. Barstow's veto of a Bill appointing a Committee to Investigate the affairs of the several Departments, after he had in his annual message and also in another message invited investigation, is just ground for suspicion that he feared an investigation, that the wrongs upon the people might be developed:

That the bids for the Lunatic Asylum building, were illegal bids, not being received till 10 days after the time for the reception of bids had expired:

That the Law limited the expense to the sum of $22,300, reported as sufficient by the Senate Committee for said building:

That the Gov. having a supervision over the Lunatic Asylum Commissioners and without whose consent the Commissioners could not enter into the contract, violated his duty and the letter and spirit of the Law and sacrificed the best interests of the people, by permitting a contract to be let, which would involve an expenditure of $452,000:

That the best interest of the people demand an exchange of administration in our State Government.

J. ALLEN BARBER.

Oct. 27th, 1855.

☞ The Madison Argus says:—"We learn that Messrs Campbell, Hogg & Welch, the sufferers by the recent fire, are making arrangements to erect a building 30 by 72 feet in size, for a new planing factory. They will build on Washinton Avenue, if they can obtain the ground on suitable terms. The building will be put up this Fall, and the machinery introduced into it, during the Winter and Spring.

California News.

The Steamer Geo. Law arrived at New York on the 30th, from Aspinwall with California mails to the 5th ult., 550 passengers and $167,000, in gold.

She connected at the Isthmus with the J. S. Stephens which brought down nearly $1,800,000. The J. S. Stephens passed the Golden Gate on the 11th and the Cortez on the 13th, both bound up—news unimportant.

All the election returns were in but no official account was received. All the K. N. ticket elected. Johnson has over 5,000 majority for Governor. The whole number of votes is 96,000. The Legislature is composed of 72 K. N's. 39 democrats and 2 Whigs. The K. N. majority in the Senate is four and in the Assembly 19.

The prohibitory law is defeated by 6,000 majority against it.

Ex-Gov. Foote and ex-congressmen Marshall and Peyton are spoken of among the K. N's. to succeed Gwinn.

A large fire occurred in Jamestown; loss fifty thousand dollars. The Masonic Hall was consumed.

Advices from Oregon announced the safety of Governor Stevens. He with his party were at Fort Benton at last accounts.

The English steamer Bolivia had arrived at Panama with dates from Valparaiso to the 18th, and Colio to the 25th. Ex-President Belsia was a passenger on his way to the United States. News unimportant.

Dates from Australia are to July 25th. Haxall (Richmond) flour sold at Melbourne on the 7th at £70 per ton.

SAN FRANCISCO MARKET.—Considerable activity had prevailed, in many articles a material advance had taken place. Market buoyant at close at the following rates: Gallego and Haxall flour 14@25; Clear Pork 22 per half barrel; Hams, prime 21c; Bacon, extra clear 24; new butter 60c; adamantine candles 48c.

Waukesha Co. Teachers' Institute.

The teachers of Waukesha County met at Waukesha on the 15th inst., and organized a Teachers' Association. The following gentlemen were elected officers of the Society:

President—E. Enos, Jr.
Vice President—A. A. Griffith.
Secretary—O. R. Bacon.
Treasurer—L. C. Slye.

A committee on text books made a report recommending:

Sanders' New Series of Readers, including The Young Ladies' Reader.
Thompson's Arithmetical Series.
Marcitus Wilson's Series of Histories, and Historical Chart.
Sanders' and Merrell's Elementary Chart and Sanders' New Speller.
Smith's Series Primary and Quarto Geography.
McElligot's Debater and Analizer.
Green's Elements of Grammar.

On motion, the report was adopted.

The Committee on Resolutions invited all the teachers in the County to meet them at their future meetings, that they might "mutually assist each other in the necessary work of elevating the standard of qualifications of Teachers of Public Schools."

The meeting adjourned to meet at Waukesha, on the 12th of February, 1856.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We learn from Dr. Ambler of Waukau, of the sudden death of Mr. Peter Slingsby, an old and much esteemed citizen of the town of Nequeskin in this county.—He was returning from his field with a load of hay, the load upset and threw him to the ground, and in the fall, the tine of a pitchfork was driven into his thigh, coming in contact with the Sciatic nerve, which caused his death in two hours.—Oshkosh Dem. 25th inst.

WINTER.—The Stevens Pt. Pinery of the 25th ult. says, "Winter has taken the Pinery by surprise; we have three inches of snow, and more falling. A large portion of the potato crop is still in the ground."

During the seven weeks M'lle Rachel was in New York she gave twenty-four performances and two readings, the gross receipts of which amounted to $86,564, of which she receives $30,000. Never before, has she received so much money within the same space of time.

POTATOES ROTTING.—The La Crosse Democrat of the 17th ult says. "most of the Potatoes in this region, show symptoms of rot. They are offered at 25 cents a bushel."

The same paper also says that, "Manton a new town across the river, though not a month old, is making substantial headway."

The St. Louis Intelligencer suggests that an Agricultural Fair of the States of Illinois and Missouri be held at St. Louis some time next year and recomends the project warmly.

PROCLAMATION

By the Governor of the State of Wisconsin!

BELIEVING in the propriety of observing the long established custom of designating one day in each year, as a day of General Thanksgiving, and more especially as the results of the present year have placed us as individuals, and as a people, under obligation to acknowledge our gratitude for a superabundant harvest—the measure of health, peace and prosperity enjoyed: Therefore, I, WILLIAM A. BARSTOW, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby designate Thursday, the Twenty-Ninth day of November next, to be observed by the people of this State, as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer to the Supreme Ruler, who has thus bountifully vouchsafed those blessings. And I respectfully recommend the clergy of the various societies to invite and meet their respective congregations, at their usual places of worship, on that day, for the purpose of suitably observing the same.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name, and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in Madison, this Thirtieth day of October, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hhundred and Fifty-Five. By the Governor,

L. S. WILLIAM A. BARSTOW.

ALEXANDER T. GRAY, Secretary of State.

THURSDAY:::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::NOV. 1.

Arrests for Placing Obstructions on the M. & M. R. R.

We stated yesterday, that officer Beck arrested on Tuesday night a gang of villains, for placing obstructions on the M. & M. R. R. In all, six persons have been arrested, and two of them—John and Joseph Davault—were caught in the act of tearing up the track with crowbars, and placing an oak tree, twelve feet long and 1 foot thick at the butt, lengthwise between the rails. They had laid a stout rail across the track, and the tree lengthwise on that, with the small end towards the expected train, so that the engine would run on it, and as the tree increased in thickness towards the butt, the train must have been thrown off.

The others arrested, were, Charles McNeil, for placing obstructions on the track, which caused the smash-up on the 9th of June last, and Evans, Jones and Hilton, for placing obstructions on the track at various times.

Mr. Beck was assisted in the arrests by Under Sheriff Walsh, of Dane County, and John Van Nater, Constable, of Stoughton, Dane Co.

The prisoners were lodged in the Dane Co. jail.

A. R. R. Butler, Esq., we understand, left here this morning for Madison, to assist the prosecution in their examination, which probably commenced this afternoon.

PREUSSER'S NEW STORE was opened, to-day to the public, with appropriate ceremonies. It is both a beautiful and a convenient structure, four stories high, having two basement rooms with a fine spring of water and a drain to the river, two stores on the first floor, four double offices and four sleeping rooms. Geo. Southwell, Jr., was the architect and builder, Thos. Lees did the mason work, Jas. Murray the painting and glazing, the chastings were from Decker & Seville's Foundrp, and the iron shutters from D. D. Badger & Co., New York. The top of the walls is coped with stone, and the whole is finished in the most substantial and workmanlike manner.

We congratulate Mr. Preusser on his enterprise, and the success which he has so justly merited. We had not time to pay our respects to the viands so bountifully prepared for his guests.

POLICE COURT.—Chas. Gross was examined this forenoon for stealing a shawl from the dwelling house of Dr. Stadler in the second Ward and was held to bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the Circuit Court and in default thereof was re-committed to Jail.

Jas. S. Pratt, arrested for stealing $15,50 was brought down from jail and admitted to bail for his appearance at the Circuit Court in the sum of $500.

PATENT SAFE GAME.—A gentleman named Cole, from the East and en route for Fox River, was yesterday swindled out of $100 by the "Patent Safe" game. Mr. Cole received a check for $300 on the Hollister Bank of Buffalo for his $100, but it is, of course, worthless

FIRST WARD.—The Republicans of the First Ward meet at the Court House to-morrow evening at 7o'clock to nominate a candidate for the Assembly.

THUNDER SHOWER.—The Madison Journal of this morning says:

A heavy thunder shower passed over Madison yesterday morning about day break.

R. R. TO BARABOO.—The Baraboo Independent says:—"The Engineer of the Watertown R. R. is in town, and assures our citizens that it will be located to Baraboo, in a short time, which is our opinion—not being willing to indulge for a moment, the thought that Baraboo, with all her natural advantages, is lohg to be left untouched, even by Rail-roads.

THE LOST $50,000.—The American Express Company hes not yet settled with the treasurer for the $50,000 which was abstracted from the boxes transmitted along its line from Dubuque to New York. In a letter addressed to the Journal of Commerce, the President of the company, Mr. Wells, denies their liability, unless it is proved that the gold was in the box on delivery to the company's officer.

ROW IN NEW YORK.—On the night of the 30th ult a procession of Americans who had been holding a political mass meeting in the Bowery, while on its way home was attacked by a party of Irishmen, and broken up. The assailants were armed with pistols, knives, stones clubs &c., seriously injuring many in the procession. The American banners were seized and destroyed.

A new Post Office has been established in the town of Clifton, in Grant County, named Plum, Grove.—Mr. M. Bartholomew, P. M.

HAVING COMPLETED FOUR MILLS IN THIS City, respectfully invites the attention of mill owners to their operation. Both a Log and Re-Sawing Mill may be seen at Simeon Smith & Co's, foot of Ontario street, North Branch; also, at Ferris & Boyd's, and at Mason & Lumb's. In addition to the two forms or modifications of these important improvements as exhibited here, the inventor proposes to erect for those extensively engaged in the manufacture of lumber, two other modifications of his mill, to wit: Slitting Gangs and Siding Gangs, the former carrying three saws 7 feet long, 12 gauge, cutting away ⅛ inch kerf, and making inch boards from cants 4½ inch thick, or ¼ inch boards from cants 3⅜ inch thick, at the rate of 3,000 ft. per hour, or 30,000 in 12 hours. The latter carrying 24 saws, 4 feet long and 16 gauge, cutting away 1-12 inch kerf and making Siding, Flooring and Fencing, at the rate of 9,000 feet per hour, lineal measure, or 4,500 feet per hour, superficial measure.

The power required for the Slitting Gang is 10 horses, and of the Siding Gang, 15 horses.

It will be perceived by the intelligent manufacturer, that these forms are AIDS to mills already in operation, or additions to the ordinary devices of making lumber.—They will also perceive their importance in respect of, first, the great addition to results in production; second, in the saving of lumber; third, in the making of exact and smooth lumber; fourth, in the saving of time in "gigging back" and "setting,"—for no carriage is required.

These forms—as in fact all the forms of Knowles' mill—are exceedingly simple and cheap in construction;—and as an inducement to manufacturers to adopt them in their establishments, the undersigned proposes to sell them upon the following easy terms of payment and sure guaranty:

For Slitting Gangs—$500 cash on delivery of mill in New York, $500 when the mill cuts 3,000 feet per hour, and $500 six months thereafter.

For Siding Gang—$500 cash on delivery of mill in Chicago, and $700 when the mill cuts 9,000 feet lineal, or 4,500 feet superficial measure, per hour; or, in lieu of any credit or other payment over $500, the undersigned agrees to take the saving of timber which they will exhibit over any single saw or circular mill for one year.

JAMES BEATTIE, JR., Gen. Agent.
Office under Marine Bank, Chicago, Illinois.

N. B.—LOG MILLS and SINGLE SAW SLITTING MILLS for sale in Chicago—Price, $1,000. Terms for Log, $700 cash, balance 6 months. Men sent to set the mills up, if desired, at $3 pr day and traveling expenses.

The following is the Report made by the Chairman of Committee of Superintendence, on the trial of this mill, on 28th of July last, in this city. The Report was made to a company of sixty gentlemen, assembled at a dinner given by Mr Knowles, on the evening of the day of trial, and in honor of the successful introduction of the improvement in the West.

"John Garrick, Esq., Chairman of the Committee, was then called upon and made a verbal

REPORT!

He stated that the other members of the Committee, as well as himself, were greatly surprised at the working power of Knowles' saw, and must acknowledge its superiority, and right to all the capacity that is claimed for it. They first put it to work upon seasoned common boards, somewhat knotty, and in two hours and four minutes it cut two thousand five hundred and eighty eight feet. It was then fed with clear stuff, and of course did more execution. Owing to some failure in the steam power, they did not run it full ten hours. In seven hours and four minutes the saw had cut seven thousand two hundred and fifty feet, and there the Committee rested, feeling satisfied that the trial was completely successful.

Mr. Garrick expressed in an eloquent manner the joy which throbbed at his heart in witnessing the accomplishment of new and valuable results in the West, to which his life was devoted. He hoped to see the day when this saw would be used all over the world." oct27d1m

NOTICE!

IS hereby given, that a general election for State officers will be held in the several Wards of the City of Milwaukee, on the 6th day of November next, and that polls will be opened at the following places, to wit:

NEW DRY GOODS AND YANKEE NOTIONS
JOBBING HOUSE!

CROSBY, FOOTE & GORDON!
No. 149 East Water Street, Milwaukee,

HAVE received an immense stock of Goods, and are now prepared for the Fall Trade of 1855. We invite the merchants of the West to examine our stock before making purchases in this or any other market. We are prepared to give Great Bargains in this line, and are satisfied that we can exhibit a more complete and varied stock than ever offered to the Trade of the West. Among our stock will be found an extensive and desirable assortment of Dress Goods, Silks, Ribbons, &c. We would invite the attention of hotel keepers and families in want of Table Linen, Towels, Napkins, Counterpanes, or anything in this line, to a large assortment.

We are the agents for the sale of Sheeps Grays, Cassimeres, &c., from the popular manufactory of Allen, Grundin & Co., New York. Merchant Tailors in the city or country will find it for their interest to examine this part of our stock before making their Fall purchases, as we will give them anything in this line at the manufacturers prices, adding the usual commission. sep12

GRAT ARRIVAL
—OF—
PIANO FORTES, MELODEONS,
AND MUSICAL GOODS!

AT NO. 175 EAST WATER STREET.

THE SUBSCRIBER IS NOW RECEIVING AN Extensive stock of superb Pianos, and other Musical Instruments, selected by himself from the best manufactories in the United States, and warranted equal to any in the world.

He would particularly invite the attention of the Musical public to an Entire New Style of Piano Forte, invented and perfected by the late Jonas Chickering, and called the Parlor Grand, or Cecilian Piano.—This is probably the most perfect instrument of the Piano kind ever invented, combining as it does all the peculiarities of the full Grand Piano, without its disadvantages in regard to size. Also, several of Boardman & Gray's Improved Scale Pianos, with their new and ingenious invention—the Patent Corrugated Sounding board, universally admired and recommended by the musical profession. Twelve Gold Medals and Premiums have been awarded to these instruments within a few years past, and the demand for them from all parts of the world is entirely unprecedented.

☞Every instrument sold by the subscriber has either been made expressly for him, or has been carefully selected from large stocks. He is therefore enabled to warrant his Piano Fortes in every particular, as being excelled by none.

☞The subscriber is the only agent in this city for following Piano makers:

CHICKERING & SONS, Boston.
BOARDMAN & GRAY, Albany.
W. P. EMERSON, Boston.
FIRTH, POND & CO., New York.

☞Prices the same as if purchased directly from the Manufacturers, and the money refunded if the Instrument does not prove satisfactory.

☞The lovers of Music are invited to examine this elegant stock of Musical instruments.

CHICAGO TYPE FOUNDRY,
AND
PRINTERS' WAREHOUSE!
43 FRANKLIN STREET, CHICAGO.

THE SUBSCRIBER HAS THE PLEASURE OF announcing that he has made arrangements for establishing a

TYPE FOUNDRY,
AND
PRINTERS' WAREHOUSE!
IN CHICAGO.

Such an establishment has been long wanted, and has been earnestly solicited by Western Printers.

The advantage of a Foundry, in connection with a Printers' Warehouse, which can supply large or small orders and "sorts," without any delay, is too well known to Printers to need comment.

A large and well assorted stock from the celebrated and long established Foundry of

WHITE & CO., NEW YORK,

Will be constantly on hand, embracing all the varieties of News, Ornamental and Jobbing Type, with Borders, Cuts, &c.

An arrangement has been made with the well-known establishment of

R. HOE & CO.,

For a large stock of presses and printers' materials.

Inks in every variety, for plain or fancy printing, from the manufactory of Collins & Lightbody, whose Inks bear a high reputation in the eastern cities.

With the arrangements thus made,

The Chicago Type Foundry!

Is prepared to offer to Western Printers every article required in a Newspaper or Job Office of the best quality, and upon as favorable terms as any Foundry in the United States. C. G. SHEFFIELD, Agent.

THE OLD EAGLE GOING IT WITH A RUSH

The Eagle
STEAM FOUNDRY
TURTON & SERCOMB,
296, 298, 300, 302 and 304, West Water Street

IS still in full blast, working day and night to supply the daily increasing wants of the Badger and other States.

In order the better to do this the proprietors have erected a large brick Foundry in addition to their former premises. They have added to their stock of Tools a large Planeing Machine or Shaping Machine, three Lathes, and a machine for making bolts, and are now putting in a Steam Engine of — horse power to drive the whole, thereby adding to their former facilities for the successful carrying on of the Foundry, Machine, Engine, and Blacksmithing business. They never were in a better position for doing business, and defy competion in any department.

In regard to the character of the work got up by this,
The Oldest Establishment in the State,
the Proprietors refer to that in successful operation thro' the country as their best recommendation, as it can speak for itself. All they can say is, that they are both PRACTICAL MECHANICS, and know how work should be done as well as the next man. They continue to manufacture Flour and Saw Mill Gearing and Steam Engines, on the most approved principle.

They have always on hand a large stock of BRASS WORK, such as Guage and Cylinder Cocks, Oil Cups & Cocks, and Steam Whistles. Also Turton's Files, which they will sell at the lowest cash prices.

They are also Agents for Eastman's Patent Steam Guages, which are well worth the attention of all who use Steam Engines.

In conclusion, they invite a continued share of the patronage of their old friends, and solicit a call from all those in want of Saw or Flouring Mill Work, assuring them that no exertions will be spared to render the Old Eagle worthy of the reputation it has already gained.

Their motto is, "Excelsior."

AYER'S PILLS.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A

FAMILY PHYSIC.

THERE has long existed a public demand for an effective purgative pill which could be relied on as sure and perfectly safe in its operation. This has been prepared to meet that demand, and an extensive trial of its virtues has conclusively shown with what success it accomplishes the purpose designed. It is easy to make a physical pill, but not easy to make the best of all pills—one which should have none of the objections, but all the advantages, of every other. This has been attempted here, and with what success we would respectfully submit to the public decision. It has been unfortunate for the patient hitherto that almost every purgative medicine is acrimonious and irritating to the bowels. This is not. Many of them produce so much griping pain and revulsion in the system as to more than counterbalance the good to be derived from them. These pills produce no irritation or pain, unless it arise from a previously existing obstruction or derangement in the bowels. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity; but it is better that any medicine should be taken judiciously. Minute directions for their use in the several diseases to which they are applicable are given on the box. Among the complaints which have been speedily cured by them, we may mention Liver Complaint, in its various forms of Jaundice, Indigestion, Languor and Loss of Appetite, Listlessness, Irritability, Bilious Headache, Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side and Loins; for, in truth, all these are but the consequence of diseased action in the liver. As an aperient they afford prompt and sure relief in Costiveness, Piles, Colic, Dysentery, Humors, Scrofula and Scurvy, Colds with soreness of the body, Ulcers and impurity of the blood; in short, any and every case where a purgative is required.

They have also produced some singularly successful cures in Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsy, Gravel, Erysipelas, Palpitation of the Heart, Pains in the Back, Stomach, and Side. They should be freely taken in the spring of the year, to purify the blood and prepare the system for the change of seasons. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, and restores the appetite and vigor. They purify the blood, and, by their stimulant action on the circulatory system, renovate the strength of the body, and restore the wasted or diseased energies of the whole organism. Hence an occasional dose is advantageous, even though no serious derangement exists; but unnecessary dosing should never be carried too far, as every purgative medicine reduces the strength, when taken to excess. The thousand cases in which a physic is required cannot be enumerated here, but they suggest themselves to the reason of every body; and it is confidently believed this pill will answer a better purpose than any thing which has hitherto been available to mankind. When their virtues are once known, the public will no longer doubt what remedy to employ when in need of a cathartic medicine. Being sugar-wrapped they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

For minute directions see wrapper on the Box.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
For the rapid Cure of
COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

THIS remedy has won for itself such notoriety from its cures of every variety of pulmonary disease, that it is entirely unnecessary to recount the evidences of its virtues in any community where it has been employed. So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. And not only in formidable attacks upon the lungs, but for the milder varieties of COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, &c.; and for CHILDREN it is the pleasantest and safest medicine that can be obtained.

As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best that it ever has been, and that the genuine article is sold by—

W. L Hopkins & Bro., H. Bosworth & Sons, agents, Druggists in Milwaukee, and by dealers generally thro'out the country.
